ARPHAXAT (Fra) "Loudun la Maudite" CD - 2008 - Hells Headbangers - 8 €

"The long awaited full-length album from the mighty ARPHAXAT now awaits! Truly Necro & Morbid Blasphemous hymns, NOT for open-minded idiots who have no idea what true primitive Black Metal is about! Consists of Shaxul (ex-HIRILORN, ex-founding DEATHSPELL OMEGA member, SABBAT (Jpn) session member, etc). and DRAKEN (ex-Putrefactor). "Loudun la Maudite" forges even more holocaustic obscenity inspired by their majestic and mysterious myths of Pictavia. Those possessed by their 2003 demo tape easily know what to expect from this obscure album."

ARS MORIENDI (Fra) "L'Oppression du Rien" CD - 2008 - Griffin Music - 5 €

"Make the painful voyage into the depths of your exhausted soul... To other side of nonexistence, in renunciation from the stuck dogmas and false god... appeasing the thirst on a scaffold... «L'oppression du Rien» - it's like six shots by lash on the fair square... where lacerated wounds blood mixed with crowd's delight... when howls of possessed sink in absolute darkness of raw chamber... out of power of time and space... in gathering of own sins. It is inconceivable linen of irreparableness on verge of Depressive Black Metal and Dark Melancholic Rock. One of the best albums of this year, filled with French charm and distinguished cynicism. Feel the fear of the death – it's beginning of every wisdom!" 1st album.

"Following several head-splitting split recordings and demo, Italy's Blasphemophager have emerged to release their debut full length "Nuclear Empire of Apocalypse" on Nuclear War Now! Formed in 2002, Blasphemophager summons forth the unholy spirits of demented legends such as SARCOFAGO, IMPETIGO, ABHORER, BESTIAL WARLUST, BLACK WITCHERY and the mighty BLASPHEMY. Blasphemophager not only succeed in achieving the levels of sickness displayed by the aforementioned bands, but also add their own brand of nuclear fueled sickness. Their blackened riffing and low-end Scream Bloody Gore-era production will leave the uninitiated begging for mercy as the listener is battered by this bestial attack of mutually assured aural destruction. DARKEST GROVE (USA) "Pain and Suffering Shall Be Known" CD - 2006 - Forever Plagued Records - 5 €

"This album is full of emotion and passion. Taking a mixture of influences musically from different styles of Black Metal from aggressive to more depressive. Conceptually this is not a Black Metal album and like the demo is a journey through philosophy or nihilism. This album is a conceptual album about living or dying to live and dying, having absorbed all the negativity that one can possibly take. There is nothing fun about this album unless you are the type of person who gets off on contradicting philosophy, hence it being only one outlook of many as we may know from all the worlds cultures." 1st album.

Follow a grey path into a landscape that is full of coldness and melancholy. This is the evocation of your funeral..." 2nd album.

"2007 brings another Dusk album and fans of the Hungarian duo know what to expect - this is True Carpathian Black Metal and this time even the vocals are done not in English but in the language of Transylvania. On "Pray For Death" the cold, ancient grimness of the Carpathian woods and mountains is channeled into the very own Dusk style, which should appeal to all fans of their previous albums as well as worshippers of Burzum, Wigrd and the like." 5th album.

ELFFOR (Spa) "Son of the Shades" CD - 2008 - Northern Silence Productions - 6 €

"This is the reissue of Elffor's 2nd album which was originally released on cd in 2002, limited to only 500 copies and has since become pretty sought after and very hard to track down. On the follow-up to the non-Metal debut Elffor's Medieval Black Ambient now comes distinctly more metallic, with heavy guitars where formerly reigned synthesizers unchallenged. This gives the majestic songs with their fantastic middle ages feeling a more powerful appearance, which often reminds of the mighty Summoning, though mastermind Eöl knows how to effortlessly keep Elffor's special style throughout the whole album and make it palpable every second of the one hour playing time. Just as the debut reissue the new version of "Son Of The Shades" comes improved in every fiber - all songs have been rerecorded/remastered, two brand new bonus tracks have been composed exclusively for this reissue and of course the cover art and booklet come with completely new, improved design, once again done by Basconian Warrior Igor Mugerza."

ELFFOR (Spa) "From The Throne of Hate" CD - 2008 - Northern Silence Productions - 6 €

"From The Throne Of Hate" marks part III of the Elffor reissue series and by our reckoning also the highlight thus far. Fans of the band will love the medieval atmosphere and ambience and with the further addition of heavy guitars the album once again gains and delivers more majestic power than its predecessor. There can be no doubt that with his 3rd album Eöl created a true masterpiece which fans of middle age themes, fantasy stories and epic Black Metal á la Summoning or Kinstrife & Blood will highly enjoy! As usual the reissue comes rerecorded, with new, improved artwork and incl. 2 exclusive bonus tracks!"

FUNERAL MIST (Swe) "Maranatha" CD - 2009 - Norma Evangelium Diaboli - 12,50 €

"Funeral Mist manifests rarely but when it does, then it is in exceptional glory. While the taint of the pandemonium that was "Salvation" is to never disappear, for it undeniably set new standards within Black Metal and beyond in terms of musical violence, chaos and the channelling of ominous spiritual energies, "Maranatha" materializes like the unadulterated omen of the end of times, like a glowing pitch black pit to whose appeal to jump within nothing can resist. The violence and the musically bizarre are still there, displayed with a rare mastery but a thorough work on atmospheres and structures and the addition of complex layers of ill sounds make this new album by Funeral Mist a renewed challenging experience, as perilous for your mind's sanity as it is for your soul's deliverance. Unique, unmistakable for anything else, Funeral Mist stands with splendour as the epitome of extremism. It is only way beyond one's limits that an encounter with the dimension summoned by "Maranatha" is made possible, an encounter as perilous as this work is cruel." 2nd album.

"Without a doubt this album stands strong as one of the most significant Black Metal releases ever!!! Released in 1993 on Candlelight Records, the debut full length CD of HAVOHEJ (Jehovah spelled backwards) came forth originally as a vessel for continuing the PROFANATICA legacy. It features what some consider the best versions of many PROFANATICA classic blasphemies as well as a few newer tracks never before recorded. More than any other recording to date, this release showcases an exceptionally unique drumming style that merges with the guitar riffs in a way that no other band has ever managed to come close to. This IS the essence of evil and blackness with each and every sinister guitar riff, complimented by a signature vocal style that truly embodies the meaning of true Unholy Black Metal. This re-issue has a reworked layout with additional artwork, liner notes & corrected track list which creates a package that by far rivals the original."

HAVOHEJ (USA) "Kembatinan Premaster" CD - 2009 - Hells Headbangers - 11 €

The second full-length album is now complete! Deemed to be the grand master of unholy darkness and black perversion, "Kembatinan Premaster" destroys all past work & is the definite Havohej ritual to be observed by ALL devotees of the genre. Easily the ultimate contender on the bestial black throne of metal to deliver such complete utter fucking darkness so very few can capture. "Kembatinan Premaster" is a single meditation consisting of 8 parts in 37 minutes of total fucking blackness with acclaimed black vocal vomits and signature style profanatic percussion. This is the continuation of the now classic Ledney atrocities committed in 1993 and yet again breaking major ground 16 years later.

Karelian METI BHUVAH deliver a new masterpiece! 13 tracks of the blackest foul malice as cold razors tickle the veins of common basis of human degeneration. Observations, visions and violent vomit. Difficult to imagine what the follow-up could be as the style is rather manifold and it seemed really a difficult task to create at least 30 minutes of such material. As time showed they coped with the task perfectly! I think that this new portion of dirt will enrapture fans of the style and those ones who appreciated the first album.

MORBOSIDAD (Mex) "Profana la Cruz del Nazareno" CD - 2008 - Nuclear War Now! - 8 €

"Despues de casi 5 anos de silencio total, las legiones bestiales han resurgido. On December 25, 2007, the notorious Tomas Stench assembled his horde of maniacal priests of darkness to desecrate the day the bastard Nazarene son was born unto the whore of Bethlehem. Recorded in Mexico with a new line-up, the third Morbosidad album is heavily influenced by Brazilian deathrash masters such as the mighty Sarcofago, Sextrash, and Holocausto, yet is still undeniably Morboso Metal. One of the most sacrilegious and blasphemous records in the NWN! catalog, "Profana La Cruz del Nazareno" achieves a primitive savagery and violence never heard before on any Morbosidad recording. And finally, the only artist whose dark visions are sufficiently unholy to adorn such a long-awaited release, the notorious Chris Moyed was summoned by the Morboso Kult to produce another masterpiece of goatworship for the cover of the CD."

MORBOSIDAD (Mex) "Morbosidad / Cojete a Dios Por el Culo" CD - 2008 - Nuclear War Now! - 8 €

"Since the early days of NWN!, Morbosidad has been one of the bands most closely allied with the label. Now, in 2008, Morbosidad stands poised to declare unholy war once more with its monstrous third album. In anticipation of their ungodly return, NWN! has reissued the first two chapters of the Morbosidad history on one CD. The self-titled first album, released in 2000 and now long out of print, is finally available once again for those who care to venture into the darkest chambers of Morbosidad's sadistic world. Combined with this is the excruciatingly bestial second album released in 2004, "Cojete a Dios Por El Culo." Both of these albums helped lay the foundation for the Bestial Black Death movement that has since grown uncontrollably and is today spreading its putrid sickness throughout every piece of this rotten planet. No one who professes devotion to blasphemous underground bestial metal should be unfamiliar with these releases."

"Savage and melancholy, the ominous music of RUINS combines malevolent intensity with stark emotional depth. With these seven hymns to desolation and sorrow the potential heard on 2005's "Spun Forth As Dark Nets" is brought to brutal perfection as RUINS demonstrate their mastery of baleful Death Metal-inspired insanity; viciously dynamic yet imbued with the genuine despairing darkness of the purest Black Metal. Incubated in the bleak Tasmanian winter, the songs unleashed here personify the savage yet romantic landscapes of that remote island; enshrouded in shadow and drama, yet incisive as a razor to the eyeball, "Cauldron" is an embodiment of the very term 'Black Metal'."

Of this recording only a tape survived, which was digitally mastered for this limited release. This is for those who could bear the official release of Projekt Misanthropia. You will endure a far more extreme and raw version on this cd. This is Stalaggh in it's purest form. This cd is released with Stalaggh's permission and is limited to 300 copies.

STIELAS STORHETT / MOR / LIHOLESIE (Rus) "Death Comes from the North" CD - 2008 - Assault Rex - 6 €

"Siberian LIHOLESIE doesn't need to be presented, and so it's easy to guess that two tracks for this opus are in the ambient-industrial style. The compositions are quite freezing. Tracks by STIELAS STORHETT are as always involute in structure and not without melody and dismal character of their author. MOR are represented by one song (20-minute long) in their unpredictable progressive style. All tracks will be recorded with the use of the same sound that is why this album will be much more than just a split-album. It includes material specially recorded for this CD. No rehearsal, unreleased and other shit records. No profiteering. This is a powerful conceptual blow! From sound and lyrics to the minutest details of artwork! The number of copies is limited."

"TENEBRAE IN PERPETUUM is back with a brand new freezing full length. "Antico Misticismo" (Ancient Mysticism) brings us 7 new hymns of pure cold & hateful Black Metal with an atmosphere few bands managed to put into their anthems. The bleak production, the desperate & odious screams, the intense and sorrowful melodies accompanied by fast drums alternated some times by slower parts, the whole opus is a glorification of Darkness. Taking the mysterious and gloomy atmosphere from "Onori Funebri Rituali" into a deeper dimension, "Antico Misticismo" present a higher level of composition and structure of the hymns, in which one can touch the revolutive feelings ingeniously orchestrated by their creator." 2nd album.

VERMETH (Fra) "Suicide or Be Killed" CD - 2008 - Drakkar Productions - 6 €
"Black Legion Metal - Chris Moyon cover art! Seven years after... A new obscurity arises from Lord Belteh's Rim's satanic mind. What to expect? Nothing more than a new manifestation of the Black Legions anti-human spirit, still the same after all these years. After a short horrific and ritualistic intro, you go back in time. In time when Black-Metal was a horrible manifestation of Evil. When Black-Metal wasn't for everyone's ears. When it was hated by most people. Like in 1990. Or better, in 1985. It's no surprise that one of these years' trademark album: BATHORY's The Return, has left its mark on VERMETH's current work. Think of more thrashy, dynamic songs that reek evilness on each note. Open your ears on the opening track or « Malediction » for example! Or the solo on « Necromancer » that sounds like those on the timeless Under The Sign of the Black Mark. However, improved compositions and playing – a real drummer is present now, don't make these songs an easy and joyful listening. Nor is this album another « old-school » album. This album doesn't aim at being original, yet it is unique. Like all Black Legions releases were. The older demons still haunt your nightmares. And VERMETH may turn them into grim reality."

"The new Belenos album consists of two parts. Chapter I - "Allégorie d'une Souffrance" is a completely rerecorded version of the fantastic second demo from 1998, whereas Chapter II - "Les Chemins de la Mort" features four brand new songs written in 2007. The fact that both chapters can be released as a single album without any differences in style or sound once again proves that Belenos fans shall never be disappointed. Since the beginning 12 years ago Belenos play their unique interpretation of Celtic Black Metal and "Chemins de Souffrance" shows that even after a dozen years it's still of the highest order." 4th album.

BLASPHEMOPHAGHER (Ita) "Atomic Infested Carnage" 10" MLP - 2008 - Nuclear War Now! - 11 €

"In preparation for the first full length album release, NWN! is honored to unleash the proper vinyl version of Blasphemophagher's first demo, "Atomic Infested Carnage." Ferocious and raw, this demo, originally released in 2003, is bestial black deathrash for the impending nuclear apocalypse.

Blasphemophagher combine warfare deathgrind in the style of Naked Whipper and Blasphemy's "Gods of War" with the pure annihilating deathrash terror of Brazilian masters Sarcófago, Sextrash, and Vulcano. This demo contains five original infernal battle hymns and a series of sacrificial cover tracks to pay homage to the masters, Blasphemy, Beherit, and Sarcófago. More thrashing than some of the recordings they have released since this demo, "Atomic Infested Carnage" is an exceptional beginning for these soon to be legendary bestial desecrators. Comes with reverse board printed jacket with different artwork from the original CD release and includes "cut-and-paste" style insert."

CREMATION (Can) "Black Death Cult" LP - 2009 - Nuclear War Now! - 9 €

Heavy black vinyl with poster and insert Review written by J. Campbell Cremation's existence was short-lived and resulted in the release of a mere four demos during the years of 1992-1995. Clearly there is a current fascination in the underground with "dark" death metal and, perhaps partly for this reason, there has been great demand for a reissue of this demo material. (Note that this release contains only three of the four demos—the first demo being intentionally omitted.) The music of this legendary Canadian band is not merely dark, however. It is possessed with a genuine atmosphere of violence and perpetual terror that is arguably unmatched in the realm of pure death metal either before or since. For years these recordings have been praised and referenced largely due to Cremation drummer J. Read's success with Conqueror, Revenge, and Axis of Advance. To those familiar with Read's work, it will come as no surprise that the drums in Cremation do not simply keep time; rather, the drums are every bit as active as the guitars and vocals. In this way, the entire force of the band is leveled upon the listener simultaneously and the result is punishing. Each instrument contributes equally to the onslaught. The recording itself is simple and sparse, yet the overall effect is one of tremendous strength due entirely to the frenetic activity of the performance. The essence at the core of Cremation's work is pure Satanic fury and virtually no death metal band from their era captured that fury so effectively as Cremation. Indeed, it can convincingly be argued that Cremation were far ahead of their time as one can hear the distinct influence of their unique style in the work of many of the new death metal bands of today. The three demos presented here, "Pire Gah Hoath Raclir Od Ialpor," "Hail The Rise of Med Pe Gal," and "The Flames of an Elite Age" vary slightly in their presentation, yet have a magnificent effect when heard in conjunction with each other. Each assault builds upon the intensity of the last and the cumulative effect is catastrophic. These demos depict the turning point at which one can hear the dying gasp of the last vestiges of pure death metal as the influx of black metal influence was about to permanently alter the landscape of the underground. Cremation's sound exists at the precipice of this sonic and conceptual shift and represents the extremity attained only at the outer limits of the boundaries that demarcate the style known as death metal.

"On "Unholy Fight For Metal", Finnish horde Evil Angel launch a blistering attack on the hypocritical denizens of paradise, storming the gates with a battering barrage of devil-worshipping might. Nine tracks of infernal, raging black/thrash evoke the wrath of the antichrist, whilst sending devotees of the blind faith cowering in fear, shivering and shaking in the face of a purposeful, blinkered onslaught. Rejoice as the celestial saints turn to dust; bang your head as God's kingdom is flooded by the sound of pure adulterous metal mayhem; laugh out loud as pale-faced priests tremble in their pews. The northern skies are aglow once more with the flames of burning Christendom. This is the vinyl version of Evil Angel's unforgiving debut and comes with a papal seal of disapproval. The armies of darkness are growing in strength as they march along the left hand path. An unholy war beckons. Battleground: heaven."

FUNERAL MIST (Swe) "Maranatha" 2 x LP - 2009 - Norma Evangelium Diaboli - 16 €

"Funeral Mist manifests rarely but when it does, then it is in exceptional glory. While the taint of the pandemonium that was "Salvation" is to never disappear, for it undeniably set new standards within Black Metal and beyond in terms of musical violence, chaos and the channelling of ominous spiritual energies, "Maranatha" materializes like the unadulterated omen of the end of times, like a glowing pitch black pit to whose appeal to jump within nothing can resist. The violence and the musically bizarre are still there, displayed with a rare mastery but a thorough work on atmospheres and structures and the addition of complex layers of ill sounds make this new album by Funeral Mist a renewed challenging experience, as perilous for your mind's sanity as it is for your soul's deliverance. Unique, unmistakable for anything else, Funeral Mist stands with splendour as the epitome of extremism. It is only way beyond one's limits that an encounter with the dimension summoned by "Maranatha" is made possible, an encounter as perilous as this work is cruel." 2nd album.

"FIRST TIME ON VINYL!! Without a doubt this album stands strong as one of the most significant Black Metal releases ever!!! Released in 1993 on Candlelight Records, the debut full length album of HAVOHEJ (Jehovah spelled backwards) came forth originally as a vessel for continuing the PROFANATICA legacy. It features what some consider the best versions of many PROFANATICA classic blasphemies as well as a few newer tracks never before recorded. More than any other recording to date, this release showcases an exceptionally unique drumming style that merges with the guitar riffs in a way that no other band has ever managed to come close to. This IS the essence of evil and blackness with each and every sinister guitar riff, complimented by a signature vocal style that truly embodies the meaning of true Unholy Black Metal." "All new studio tracks of Black Noise featuring Paul Ledney's exclusive signature style of pounding on wooden coffins, rupturing volcanic rumble, and spewing voice vibrations of black vomit. Clocking in at over 30 minutes, "Hornbook Seytan" is a more diverse and stripped down primitive variation of the former mini-LP "Tungkat Blood Wand". This is a guaranteed unpleasant listen sure to displease most!"

HAVOHEJ (USA) "Kembatitan Premaster" LP - 2009 - Hells Headbangers - 13 €

Easily the ultimate contender on the bestial black throne of metal to deliver such complete utter fucking darkness so very few can capture. "Kembatitan Premaster" is a single meditation consisting of 8 parts in 37 minutes of total fucking blackness with acclaimed black vocal vomits and signature style profanatic percussion. This is the continuation of the now classic Ledney atrocities committed in 1993 and yet again breaking major ground 16 years later.

Meet the phantasmal presence in your psyche and surrender your grip on reality as the host's tortured visions and nightmare soundscapes lead you to a realm previously unexplored by any entity. Seven prolonged sufferances reveal dreadful pain and distress, introducing a decrepit, hallucinatory and psychotic existence, suffused liberally with infinite inspiration and hollow hopelessness. These intense invocations transmit a profound maturity and sadness, invoking disturbing apparitions and spectral emissions, unsympathetically infecting the subconscious. 'The Haunting Presence' is a spiritual manifestation of ritualistic bleak art, a harrowing personal voyage through labyrinths lofty, majestic and grand. Supremely individualistic, KROHM is the essence of otherworldly continuance, the re-occurring resonance of lingering energies. Transcendental, paranormal black metal; for lost souls only."

Extreme Bestial Thrashing Black Death in the style of BLASPHEMY and old-BEHERIT! MORD ( USA ) "Imperium Magnum Infernalis" LP - 2007 - Blasphemous Underground - 6 €

"From the darkest recesses of the underground, Mord's classic debut is excavated and re-pressed in glorious vinyl format. Chaotic and crude, raw and unrefined, the immense tracks on 'Imperium Magnum Infernalis' boast genuine obscurity rooted in uncompromised integrity and afforded breathing space by a subtle, opaque production. The black blending of strangulated screams, swarming guitars and demonic drums captures a supreme tone of spiteful discipline and intrinsic iniquity. Evil, wicked and malicious, Mord reflects the base aspects of humanity, emitting darkness and dejection in His name. Cloaked in authenticity and featuring a cameo from Malefic of Xasthur and the original, slightly remastered demo tracks (without keyboards), this is cold, primitive Satanic devotion in its purest form. Limited edition."

OCTOBER FALLS (Fin) "The Streams of the End" 12" MLP - 2007 - Debemur Morti Productions - 6 €

"On 'The Streams Of The End', OCTOBER FALLS re-materialises in a bolder incarnation, presenting a fiercer face that casts the Finnish one-man act in a revealing new light. While traces of a glorious acoustic past remain palpable, OCTOBER FALLS embellishes trademark orchestral folk with a harsher edge, infusing majestic compositions with unprecedented menace smothered in an atmosphere of forlorn tragedy. The second mini album from Mikko Lehto comprises four sorrowful laments – closely themed to fashion a 22-minute expression of absolute despair. Lush tones create a morose mood, while the cold manifestations drift slowly, reverberating off wistful woodland and caressing fecund foliage in some dark, wintry forest at the heart of the Great North. The songs are suffused in diversity and dynamic, sometimes serene and soothing but also generating sensations of inconsolable grief, tortured anguish and utter desperation. Quiver and cower beneath the might of nature, as gloom and despondency infect your isolated essence, giving rise to a well of emotions condemned to lie dormant in those untouched by OCTOBER FALLS' rich arrangements. Allow the sparse, chilly landscape to engulf your soul, while the artist's singular vision shrouds you in mist and shatters your world. Rich, complex and ritualistic, the altered state of OCTOBER FALLS as represented on 'The Streams Of The End' whispers long-forgotten tales of acts committed under foggy night skies, with only shadows and silhouettes as witnesses. Atypical and extraordinary, this mini album sees one of Finland's most enigmatic forces explore a verdant new terrain that few before have dared to tread. Limited edition."

OFERMOD (Swe) "Tiamtū" LP - 2008 - Norma Evangelium Diaboli - 11 €

"OFERMOD is a name that people within the underground Black Metal scene pronounce with respect and in awe. Much of the current Swedish Black Metal sound finds its origin in the early works of OFERMOD, released 1998. The abyssal atmosphere, the sinister chord progressions, the violent and commanding drumming, a depraved demonlike voice, all of that is OFERMOD's genuine trademark. And they are back to reclaim their throne with "Tiamtū", an album that sublimes their roots, looking back to the ancient past and diving right into the firmament..." 1st album.

SLIDHR / REBIRTH OF NEFAST (Ire/Ger) "Ex Nihilio" LP - 2008 - End All Life Productions - 12 €

"Split-CDs are often hazardous, resulting in an unbalanced artistic impact. Ex-Nihilio, the common work of Rebirth of Nefast and Slidhr, to the contrary, showcases two entities that complement each other to a rare extent. Most likely because both exhale the same pitch-black atmosphere and tend towards the same bleak aim. Rebirth of Nefast works with atmospheres, expressing the unlikely and grotesque, with an undeniable sinister spiritual edge. Slidhr is hatred and violence, not unlike an entity such as Funeral Mist, but also a great sense for the riff. Yet you could reverse these descriptions and still match the point. It is genuinely challenging material, and a great testimony to the unique brilliance of Black Metal."

Psychotic, disturbing visions abound as the ultra doom nightmare is unveiled amid a sickening dose of phobia-inducing audio illness. Agonised, tormented howls; inhuman(e) shrieks; terrible, tortuous invocations. The corrupted, unbalanced mindset revealed on these psychosomatic infections is so chronic it will induce feelings of vertigo and paranoia as the pandemic of disequilibrium spreads like a disease.
